Viola Nevy Becomes Bride of William H. Orsinger, USNR

Before the altar banked with Christmas greens, poinsettias and lighted with tall white candles, Miss Viola Catherine Nevy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nevy, 779 Fayette street, became the bride this morning of Midshipman William Hubert Orsinger, USNR., George Washington University Medical school, Washington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Orsinger, Washington.

The ceremony was solemnized at a 9 o'clock high nuptial mass in SS. Peter and Paul church, Fayette street, with Rev. Father Eugene Estil, T. O. R., of the Franciscan Fathers, Loreto, Pennsylvania, a personal friend of the bridal couple, officiating.

Miss Inez Nevy, New York City, was the maid of honor and Miss Florence Nevy, city, was the bridesmaid. Both are sisters of the bride. Midshipman John Dillan, USNR., Washington, served as best man and the ushers were Private First Class William Simpson and Gilbert Bowman, both of Washington.

The mass was sung by the Ursuline Academy choir with Prof. Peter Schumacher at the organ. During the offertory Prof. Schumacher played Schubert's "Ave Maria," and also the traditional wedding marches.

single strand of pearls was her only ornament.

The maid of honor wore a gown of gold faille taffeta made complementary to the bride's. She wore a hair arrangement of matching veiling and flowers and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of mixed flowers with red roses predominating.

The bridesmaid was attired in a rose faille taffeta dress also made on the same lines as the bride's. Her hair arrangement was of veiling and flowers, and she carried an old-fashioned bouquet of mixed flowers with yellow roses predominating.

Mrs. Nevy, mother of the bride, was attired in an aqua crepe dress with which she wore a black hat and black accessories. Mrs. Orsinger, mother of the bridegroom, wore an aqua dress with matching hat and accessories. Both wore corsages of gardenias.

Following the church ceremony, a breakfast for the bridal party and families and a reception were held at the home of the bride's parents. The table was centered with a tiered wedding cake ornamented with a miniature bride and bridegroom, and wreathed with smilax and white roses. Bouquets of white pompons

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin brocade fashioned with sweetheart neckline and long sleeves ending in points on the hand. The long torso bodice was fastened to the full skirt which ended in a sweeping train. Her fingertip-length veil of bridal illusion was held with a cap trimmed with clusters of orange blossoms on either side. She carried a white prayer book with a white orchid marker and shower of bouvardia. A and smilax completed the table decorations. Bouquets of white sweet peas, pompoms and snapdragons were used throughout the home. Assisting Mrs. Nevy at the reception were Mrs. Hugo Keller, Mrs. Howard Taylor and Mrs. Frederick Puderbaugh.

The bride, a graduate of Allegany High School and the Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, will receive her bachelor of science degree in Nursing Education in a short time from Catholic University, Washington.

Midshipman Orsinger is a graduate of Catholic University and is attending George Washington Medical School, Washington.

For traveling the bride wore a turf brown semi-sport dress, with a turf brown top coat and matching hat and accessories. An orchid corsage completed her costume.

Following an eastern wedding trip, Midshipman and Mrs. Orsinger will reside in Washington.

Orsinger-Nevy Wedding Will Take Place Today

Ceremony Will Be Performed Here at Nuptial High Mass

Miss Viola Catherine Nevy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nevy, 779 Payette street, will become the bride of Midshipman William Hubert Orsinger, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Orsinger, Washington, D. C., today.

The wedding ceremony will be solemnized at a 9 o'clock Nuptial High Mass in SS. Peter and Paul Catholic church with the Rev. Eugene Estill, T.O.R., of the Franciscan Fathers, Loretto, Pa., an intimate friend of both families, officiating. Miss Inez Nevy will be her sister's maid of honor and another sister, Miss Florence Nevy, will be bridesmaid.

Midshipman John F. Dillon, Washington will serve as best man and Pfc. William Simpson, Georgetown Medical school, Washington, D. C., and Gilbert C. Bowen, also of Washington, will be the ushers.

Bouquets of poinsettias in golden vases and tall candelabra of white tapers will decorate the altar and a special program of appropriate music will be presented by the children's choir.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will be attired in the traditional white bridal gown and veil. Her maid of honor will have a gown of gold and her bridesmaid's costume will be of red rose.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Allegany high school and Memorial Hospital School of Nursing. She is attending Catholic University of America, Washington, from which she will graduate early in 1945 with a B.S. in nursing.

Midshipman Orsinger is a graduate of the Catholic university and is now attending George Washington University Medical School.

Mr. and Mrs. Nevy will entertain their daughter's bridal party, members of the immediate families and out of town guests at a wedding breakfast at their home following the ceremony. The bridal motif will be carried out in the bouquets of white flowers, tall white tapers and the tiered wedding cake. Upon their return from a brief wedding trip the couple will reside in Washington.

An informal dinner party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Nevy at their home, preceding the rehearsal last evening, at which time an all white color scheme was also for the decorations.
