

Mr., Mrs. Ralph G. Nevy Mark 56th Anniversary

Phone calls from all their children and announcement that a grandson had made the "Who's Who" at his college, featured the 56th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Nevy, 779 Fayette Street, Tuesday.

The former Miss Ermenia

Music Club To Meet

The Wiley Ford Music Club will meet tomorrow at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Bernie Coberly, Short Gap.

The birthday of Mrs. Evelyn Schraum was celebrated and gifts were exchanged at the meeting at the home of Douglas Kesner. Susan Burns presided and reports were given by the host and Janet Sulser. It was announced that 19 participated in the Christmas caroling, after which Betty Brown served refreshments at her home. Group singing concluded the meeting.

Galli, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Galli, became the bride of Mr. Nevy, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Nevy, January 12, 1915. The wedding ceremony was solemnized in the Catholic Church of Ebensburg, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Nevy came to Cumberland in 1916, when Mr. Nevy established The Cumberland Macaroni Manufacturing Company.

They are the parents of four children, Mrs. Frank (Inez) Albetta, Oyster Bay, Long Island, N.Y.; Aldo A. Nevy, Huston, Texas; Mrs. William H. (Viola) Orsinger, Arlington, Va.; and Mrs. John (Florence) Lander, Dayton, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Nevy have 19 grandchildren and one great grandchild. Frank Albetta, Jr., made the "Who's Who" in his senior class at Binghamton College, New York.

A family reunion was held last summer, while the grandchildren were on vacation.

Enjoy the