Henry Nevy, 68, Taken by Death

Cumberland Macaroni Company Partner Was Native of Italy

Henry Nevy, 68, a native of Italy and one of the owners of the Cumberland Macaroni Company, died early this morning at the home of his brother, David Nevy, 821 Gephart Drive. In failing health since last July, he underwent an operation in Washington in January. He had been bedfast the last three weeks.

Born in Bergoito D. Berecto, Italy, in 1877, the son of the late Anthony and Catherine (Grassi) Nevy, he came to the United States in 1901, and settled in Blairsville, Pa., where, for a short time, he was employed in the coal mines. Later he went into partnership in a bakery business with his four brothers at Blairsville.

In 1909, the brothers went into a grocery business and conducted two stores, one at Vintondale, Pa., and the other at Colver, Pa. Seven years later in 1916, the brothers formed the Cumberland Macaroni Company and have continued to operate the business. Mr. Nevy moved to Cumberland in 1917.

Shortly before embarking for America at the age of 17, Mr. Nevy was assisting his father, a stonemason, with work in Marseilles, France, when the latter took ill and died.

Mr. Nevy was a member of SS, Peter and Paul Catholic church, of Cumberland and Lodge No. 271, Loyal Order of Moose, and of Cumberland Lodge of Owls, Nest No. 90.

He was twice married, his first wife being the late Mrs. Rose (Cnvasini) Nevy, and his second, Mrs. Catherine (Iasuni) Nevy, residing in Farnovo Taro, Italy, who survives him. Other survivors include a daughter by his first marriage, Mrs. Linda Vicini, residing in Farnovo Taro; a son, Robert Nevy, who was born in Cumberland, but who now resides at Farnovo Taro; three other brothers besides David Nevy, Carlo and Ralph Nevy, both of Cumberland, and Louis Nevy, Vintondale; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Avall and Mrs. Polmina Pioli, both of Vintondale, and two grandchildren.

The body will remain at the George Funeral Home. No arrangements have been made.
